	Questions	Answers
1	Is a vendor allowed to bid if they are a SBE per NYS definition (not certified) with staff that has the DEI training expertise?	Yes. In the minimum qualifications you would need to be a NYS Certified MWBE or SDVOB, or a self-certified SBE per NYS's definition. If you are not, then you would not meet the required minimum qualifications and wouldn't be able to bid.
2	Do you have any additional guidance on the specific training you are seeking? It seems like you are looking to grow awareness of the OPWDD field and train staff in areas of self- improvement, communications and inclusion. Would you be able to narrow down the scope of training for us?	We are seeking in this training to grow awareness of the OPWDD field. Self – improvement, improving communications and inclusion would all be content within the training we are seeking. We seek curriculum for developing peer led training teams to promote embracing diversity as a strength, foster inclusivity, and build capacity for teaching and learning new diversity, equity, and inclusion skills. We are seeking training that will ensure strong social interactions within the cadre of trainers resulting in increased training engagement and facilitating the building of healthier workplace communities.
